Gabriel Dam Bill Signed

President Lyndon Johnson has signed a bill authorizing $1.5 million to start construction on two San Gabriel River dams, one at Lanepet and the other above Georgetown in Williamson County.

The appropriation bill, held up for several months in the Congress, calls for the money to be used mainly for land acquisition, but some of it will be spent on access roads and other items of construction.

News of the bill's signing came from the office of Congressman J. J. Pickle. He said it was possible a "hold" would be put on the money temporarily because funds were scarce at present, but that funds for land acquisition would be available in a short time.

Brazos River Authority directors, this fall, voted to assume the costs of water conservation storage spaces in two of the planned reservoirs, clearing the way for real estate purchases as soon as the funds were appropriated.

Oxshier Smith, a director of the BRA, said at that time that purchases could possibly start by spring and construction of the dams could be completed within 5 years.

Killeen Conductor Leads Symphony

Robert Thomas, director of music at Central Texas College, Killeen, has been appointed conductor of the Central Texas Symphony Orchestra.

Auditions will begin in early January, 1968, at Temple's Cultural Activities Center for prospective players in the symphonic group.

Announcement was by Frank M. Luecke, of Cameron, president of the Central Texas Symphony Orchestra Association, which plans concerts in Temple and other Central Texas towns in the spring.

Other officers of the Symphony Association Board are: Dr. Tyler W. Cagle, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Wendland, secretary; and William Chamlee, secretary, all of Temple.

The Symphony board, newly re-organized, met at Temple CAC last week. Directors from cities in seven counties of Central Texas are being named. The Board meets again Tuesday, December 12.

Thomas, 33, holds an MA degree from the University of South Florida and bachelor's from North Texas State. He has played in the Anchorage, Alaska Civic Orchestra and Tampa Philharmonic. He is a native of Meadville, Pa., where he graduated from high school in 1952.

Thomas is projecting a sizeable budget need for the proposed 60-piece orchestra. A Central Texas Symphony appeared in Temple and Cameron in March, 1966, a first for the Milam County seat which drew a capacity crowd for the performance.

The Symphony Board will study a proposed budget and plans for a Central Texas Symphony Association. Officers and directors are planning to name a Council to work on projects for funding and planning concerts in the Central Texas area.

Luecke is a former director of Temple Cultural Activities Center and the Symphony Board. He is editor of The Cameron Herald.

With F.M.L.

About 10 years ago when we first moved among the remnants and relics of this old newspaper, people kept recalling the Daily Midet, a newspaper put out singlehandedly for years by a predecessor, J. B. White.

J. B. may have been able to make it pay, but we didn't see how.

Times change. If you have ever been on a jet, you realize how fast times have changed. Any hour, you pass into a new time zone. And the change within any time zone on the ground is immense.

Nonetheless, the idea of a midet newspaper rankled these years, and finally found a possibility in a children's newspaper.

The Tiny Herald is unique in the Southwest. It meets a need in our readership among youngsters 4 to 9 who are being conditioned to television by dozens of cartoon series. The Tiny Herald is somewhat educational, but meant more for fun.

It may keep your kids occupied an hour or two each week. It is being distributed throughout all Milam County area schools this week. If you like it, tell us. Better yet, subscribe!

Only one other weekly in the United States has tried the idea. We hope your kids, those newspaper readers of the future, like it.

A word of congratulations is due the efforts of the men who put together the downtown Christmas decoration program. For the first time in years, there are new, bright downtown decorations. Contributions came from the Chamber, the City and individual businesses.

The store windows reflect the new optimism that pervades this town. They, too, are brighter, better lighted than in many previous years. When some more downtown improvements and clean-up are accomplished, it will be a different place.

The first downtown offstreet parking lot is about completed at Gillis and Central. It is an entire half block graded and gravelled by the City by permission of landowners through efforts of the Chamber.

Downtown employees are being urged to park there. Other free parking is available behind First Baptist Church daily. And one other offstreet location is still being sought.

With the closer curb parking, it is important to have offstreet parking for employees and customers' cars. More parking is available in front of the stores.

It is interesting that people will walk blocks from a huge shopping center parking lot, but want only to walk a few feet in Cameron. Why the difference?

CONCERT, ART EXHIBIT SCHEDULED

A display of children's art is on exhibit at the Cameron Public Library for December and plans for a Christmas music program have been announced by Friends of the Library.

Jack Everett, a baritone and senior at Baylor University, will present a program of Christmas music for the December meeting of Friends of the Cameron Library. The program will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, December 14, at the library.

The art display will also be featured at the December Friends meeting. The collection of students' work in grades 2 through 5 and special education are from Ben Milam, Ada Henderson and O. J. Thomas schools. They are displayed in the library reception room.

The children's work includes examples of paper batik, mosaic, still life, graffiti, and Christmas frieze in pastels. It is representative of art methods used by Cameron school children this year under the direction of Mrs. L. W. Stroup, Title I art teacher.

Mrs. Stroup has approximately 600 children in her art classes.

Huber-Smith Sets Milam Wildcat

By Lloyd Albertson
South Milam County, where drilling activity has been at a standstill for almost a month, had a new wildcat underway this week.

The new wildcat is the J. M. Huber Corporation and R. E. Smith No. 1 R. D. Busch. Location is on a lease in David Houston Survey and in the North Milbur Field.

The Busch is permitted to the Navarro, although almost all production in North Milbur is from the Basal Wilcox which lies above the Navarro.

The wildcat was drilling ahead at last report early this week.

Two other wildcats located in adjoining Lee and Bell Counties are scheduled or drilling and are being watched by the oil fraternity for possible effects on Milam activity.

The Bell County wildcat, scheduled on Monday, will be a 1,600 foot Edwards Lime test. It will be drilled by Eugene Klein and is his No. 1 Kathleen Davenport Carskadden. Location is on a 362 acre tract in J. I. Herrera Survey about 4½ miles west of Heidenheimer.

The other area wildcat, drilling in Lee County, is a deep Silgo test by Pan American Petroleum Corporation, the No. 1 J. T. Carlisle. At last report this wildcat was coring at 7,211 feet in lime.

The Pan Am test is located in Samuel Marshall Survey south of Lexington.

The Carlisle is the first deep wildcat the company has drilled in Lee since the No. 1 Willy Matejcek three years ago failed to find the Smackover after being drilled below 16,000 feet and was plugged and abandoned.

Town Must Be Able To Present Facts, Figures

(Ed. Note: This is the second in a series on the Texas Industrial Commission's role in community development.)

By James J. Kelly

As we mentioned in Part I of this series, it could be the town with the most attractive Main Street or the neatest park and schools that gets the new industry, but in any case, it will be a town which is able to present itself well in facts and figures.

Remember, any industry first and foremost must make a profit. Therefore, to the industrialist there is no such thing as a "good" labor force, or a "good" water supply, or a "good" tax structure. He wants to know exactly what the labor force is: men, women, skilled, unskilled; what is the water supply in gallons - the consumption; what the tax structure is in detail. He will want to know the facts and figures on subjects such as these for the past, present and projections for the future.

In short, the industrialist, your prospect, must have the data necessary to decide whether or not a town offers a profitable picture for his particular operation. And this data must be available when the prospect comes to town - not promised for two weeks later. The prospect may have five or six towns to visit and evaluate during the next two weeks. This means that your research and analysis must be done now, at the very first of your I. D. Program.

The best way to start compiling the necessary facts and figures about your community is to assign specific individuals in the I. D. Committee the responsibility of becoming experts in certain areas of information - such as labor, water, taxes, land, etc. From past experience it has been shown that the specialist on labor should be an employer, not an employment commission official, and the specialist in taxes should be a taxpayer, not someone from the County Clerk's office.

Research and Analysis can be done on a do it yourself basis, but your community might consider it worthwhile to pay to have a complete economic research and analysis report made by professionals. Texas A&M and the University of Texas have the resources to do an admirable job at a relatively low cost.

There are many sources from which your newly-appointed research specialists can begin compiling data: the public library, the city clerk's office, the utility companies, etc. But they should also seek assistance from one or more of the several agencies in Texas which offer assistance in this area. The Texas Industrial Commission is one of these, and will supply a list of all other sources in the state.

When the basic research and analysis has been done, you will have a list of "candidate industries" - those manufacturing firms whose needs match what your community has to offer, or, in other words, those companies who can operate at a profit in your town. In this manner you will be avoiding a shotgun, hit-or-miss method of seeking new industry in favor of the rifle, or targeted approach.

Bill Pending To Overhaul Grain Standards Law

Legislation overhauling the 51-year-old federal grain standards and inspection law was approved today by the Livestock and Grains Subcommittee of the House Committee on Agriculture.

Among other changes, the pending measure would put all inspections, except those on grain exports on a voluntary basis. It also authorizes use of mechanical and electronic inspection devices which can take samples of grain from spouts during loading and unloading.

Supported by the Agriculture Department and the grain industry generally, the legislation now goes to the full Agriculture Committee for action. Rep. Graham Purcell, D-Tex., subcommittee chairman, expressed hope for full committee action in the next few hours.

"Once in effect, the revised inspection law should expedite the movement of grain," said Purcell, "and aside from effecting lowered operating costs to many grain handlers it should help relieve the usual boxcar shortage during harvest time." He said testimony at hearings on the bill indicated that it might have the effect of increasing the availability of as many as 7,000 boxcars by reducing the time now consumed in shunting them around on sidetracks during inspection.

HD NOTES-

By Christine Laws

Pork supplies will reach a seasonal high this month. The pigs are coming to market in a variety of ways. A porker has two shoulders and, of all the cuts, none offers more possibility and more for your meat dollar than cuts from the shoulder.

The Boston butt, the square piece of meat from the upper part of the shoulder, leads the list of pork cuts in the percentage of lean meat which it yields. Fresh pork shoulder butt roast has a rich flavor; it is juicy and tender. Because a pork shoulder roast is chunky and has small amount of bone it requires slightly longer cooking time than a loin roast.

Pork shoulder steaks are closely related to pork chops. Similar in flavor, texture and cooking methods to chops, shoulder steaks are almost always lower in price. The economy of the shoulder steaks is part of the law of supply and demand. Fewer homemakers know about pork steaks and therefore they choose the steaks less frequently than chops.

"Slow and easy" is the secret of successful pork cooking. You want to retain the moist tenderness, so cook the meat thoroughly to develop the flavor. Roasting is ideal for the roasts; pork steaks take well to broiling.

OTHER PLENTIFUL FOODS

Fryers continue to be low priced in our markets. A good frozen turkey offers prices lower than a year ago. Grade A large size eggs offer both economy and quality at the egg counter.

The hardy fall vegetables are more in evidence now. Cabbage, hard shell squash, dry yellow onions and sweet potatoes are economical now. Cauliflower, carrots, head lettuce, mustard, collards, turnip greens, and broccoli also are worth considering.

Tangerines, the easy to pull, zipper skin fruit is available in limited quantities. Oranges by-the-bag is the most economical way to select medium size fruit. Some Texas grown grapefruit is now on the market and supplies will increase as the season advances. Apples for cooking and eating out-of-hand continue plentiful. Bananas, cranberries, pears, pomegranates, and persimmons are other fruit choices available.

WINTER FEED SUPPLEMENT

Entered as second-class matter at the Post Office in Cameron, Texas, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879. Published every Thursday.

A Civic Necessity?

Many reasons can be given for additional income for Cameron, including a city sales tax, but the greatest is necessity.

Property owners, sensing the necessity of new taxes, apparently pushed hard in 50 cities and towns voting Tuesday on the issue. It was passed by majorities ranging from 2 to 1 in six and seven to one in Temple, Killeen and Holland in Bell County.

Twelve towns defeated the issue Tuesday, all of them in the metro area of Fort Worth-Dallas whose voters approved the issue.

The only pattern discernible against the city sales tax, contrary to expectation, is those satellite towns of major cities and those isolated communities either so well funded or unmotivated to capture the local income.

Cameron is voting December 19 on the issue and the pros and cons are coming forth. But the necessity of revenue for Cameron cannot be denied. And it also can be remembered that a considerable effort toward equalization and valuation occurred in Cameron in 1966 and in Cameron Independent School District in 1964, both necessary as well.

Serious doubts can be raised about the ad valorem tax being substantial enough in modern times to maintain a city or county. Necessity is great enough in Cameron that promise of an ad valorem reduction is impractical.

Cameron voters, regardless of income, should consider that better jobs and better property values, which can support ad valorem taxes, require a progressive city.

Cameron would not be forgetting the farmers. For various complex reasons, most farmers have left the farm. Not just in Milam County, but throughout the country. Their exodus was an economic necessity. Cameron's needs for growth are economic necessity.

Eighty-two out of 96 Texas cities have approved the 1 cent sales tax. Can Cameron afford to pass up this advantage, when every major, competitive city in Central Texas and most small ones have not?

Who Speaks For Freedom?

We have been witnessing what has been heralded as the greatest protest in the United States to date against the war in Vietnam.

No doubt... the details of this exhibition will also have been examined, with a great deal of relish, in Hanoi, Peking and Moscow.

To an extent which has perhaps never been equalled in history, we have been observing a strange situation in which the most powerful nation on earth is being pushed nearer and nearer to the brink of defeat, not by the bravery of the enemy or any lack of it by its own troops, but by the actions of what is actually only a small portion of its people at home.

Surely the Communist leader, after examining the pictures and reports of the latest United States demonstrations, will be encouraged to stay away from any conference table. They could not be blamed for hoping that a few more shoves might finally topple the great nation that appears to have rotting morale at home at the very moment when it has had thrust upon itself the difficult role of champion of the free world.

No nation can allow itself to be swayed by the actions of the mob and still remain in a position of influence in this extremely dangerous world.

Even those who love freedom with the passion of the eagles—and there are plenty of us—must surely be disturbed in these peculiar times by the feeling that precious liberty itself is now on trial.

We are today facing an extremely grave crisis in which the blind and almost rabid worship of what some call freedom is almost completely obliterating what used to be called responsibility.

Predictions Look At 1990s

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Texas will almost double its population — to nearly 18,000,000 by 1990 — and residents will have more money to spend, if not as much room to live in.

These are among predictions for the not-so-distant future contained in a new forward look at the state's economy prepared by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Their publication, Texas 90: An Economic Profile of Texas to 1990, includes these highlights:

—New factory growth will bolster the Texas economy more powerfully than any other factor between 1967 and 1990 as the state becomes constantly more dependent upon manufacturing. Value added by manufacture (a measure of the difference in value between the raw materials that flow into a factory and the goods shipped out) will increase to $37,500,000,000 a year. It now is less than $10,000,000,000.

—Due for rapid expansion is the work force — although not uniformly in all industries. Most dynamic employment growth will be in the service industries: laundries, barber and beauty shops, auto repairs, transportation, hotel management, recreation, professional services, etc.

—Texas agriculture will approximately double its output (cash receipts from farm marketings are seen as reaching nearly $5 billion in 1990), although farm employment probably will decrease.

—Texas cities will lead the population growth trend. By 1990 both the Houston and the combined Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan areas will have populations of more than 3,300,000. That nearly equals the entire U.S. of 1790. All seven of the state's biggest standard metropolitan statistical areas will see massive growth.

—Negro population, while increasing in numbers, now represents less than 13 percent of the total, compared to 25 percent a century ago.

—Spanish-surname population is increasing rapidly and now makes up 15 percent of the Texas total.

HE'S GOT 'EM GUESSING
Once more Gov. John Connally's plans are the No. 1 topic of state capitol speculation.

In a press conference here, Connally vigorously denied rumors he may be the next U.S. Secretary of Defense. He plans to serve out his term as governor. But less than 12 hours later in Washington, he acknowledged the secretary's job "would be very difficult to turn down" if offered. With the rumor mill still buzzing, he flew to France on a promotional mission for HemisFair '68, the world's fair in San Antonio next year.

Before he left Texas, Connally had kind words to say about two men who have been mentioned as prospects to succeed him: former Congressman Frank Isard of Wichita Falls (who has stated he does not intend to run) and Secretary of State John B. Hill (who indicates that he plans to announce by mid-January.)

Actual declared-candidate list picked up one new name: State Rep. Don Gladwin, Fort Worth liberal, announced for lieutenant governor against House Speaker Ben Barnes. Gladwin said he would like to run on a ticket headed by Sen. Ralph Yarborough as a candidate for governor. Houston attorney Don Yarborough, another likely gubernatorial candidate, said he wouldn't seek the governor's office if the senator does.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held that telephone companies owe sales taxes on electricity used to perform their operations. Decision means about $400,000 in revenue to the state.

In other recent opinions, Martin has concluded that:

—School board vacancy positions must be specifically designated on ballot.

—To qualify under "grandfather clause", for permit, a corporation need show it was engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in the State under a charter or permit prior to August 24, 1935.

—University of Texas may enter into interagency contracts with Coordinating Board, College and University System to furnish it, at cost, data processing equipment and services.

—Firemen in certain cities are entitled to refund of paid-in contributions to retirement fund on separation from service, notwithstanding prior payment of disability benefits.

—Harris County commissioners may approve purchase of equipment, supplies or material for road and bridge work though purchase was made by someone other than county engineer.

—Children under 15 can be convicted only for perjury under penal code.

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. Connally named former Hidalgo County Judge J. C. Looney of Edinburg to Public Safety Commission, succeeding John Peace of San Antonio who took oath of office to University of Texas Board of Regents. Looney leaves the Coordinating Board of the Texas Col-

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

A neighbor came over to my house out here yesterday morning carrying a bundle of newspapers and dumped them on my kitchen table and said, "Here, I wish you'd read these and then explain the international monetary system to me." I thanked him and said give me time.

I have read the papers and will have to tell him there's not enough time.

The papers of course were filled with news about England's devaluing the British pound, the effect it will have on the price of gold, the value of the dollar, the balance of trade, and possibly the future of the human race, none of which I am able to predict.

As I understand it, as far as I can get, the world's money system mostly is based on the dollar, the dollar is based on gold, and gold is based on $15 an ounce, provided the scales are balanced and De Gaulle isn't trying to weigh his thumb too.

Getting deeper into the subject, the United States has 13 billion dollars worth of pure gold buried in its vaults at Fort Knox, excluding any the mice may have carried off, and as long as it's there a dollar bill will be accepted in any store in Cameron.

Since you and me and very few of the Cameron merchants ever get around to actually looking in the vaults at Fort Knox to see if the gold is there, some of us they say we swap dollar bills on faith, some people having a lot more faith than others, judging by the way they wind up with the biggest stack at closing time on Saturdays.

On top of this, I concluded after reading that bundle of newspapers, if some West Virginia coal miner's pick suddenly hit a vein of gold a few miles long, making gold as plentiful as coal the world's financiers would all faint.

I'm afraid I'm going to have to tell my neighbor money is like electricity. Don't try to understand it, just use it.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

lege and University System, a post he has held the past two years.

Governor named as regents of Midwestern University R. E. Thornton of Olney, Hen y Sears of Hereford and Mrs. Roland Boyd of McKinney. He reappointed E. N. Jones of Dallas.

Peter S. Solito of Houston was Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 in Harris County.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed to interim House Committee on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency Reps. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls, Lamorne Holland of San Antonio, Glenn Johnson of Temple, John Allen of Longview, and Curtis Graves of Houston; also Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland, Mrs. Jim W. Walker of Amarillo, Joe Goldman of Dallas and Judge Scott Moore of Fort Worth.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith named Sen. Charles Herring of Austin to the Senate Parking and Traffic Committee after Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo declined to serve.

Dept. of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr. promoted Major Leo Gossett of Midland to D'S Chief of Criminal Law Enforcement. Capt. E. K. Browning Jr. of Austin was promoted to rank of major to succeed Gossett as regional commander at Midland. James E. Riddles of Austin was elevated to Texas Ranger Captain, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Jim Paulk of Lubbock earlier this year. Lt. C. L. Russell of Beaumont replaces Browning as highway patrol captain.

Is Home Ownership Best? Pros, Cons To Be Considered

Home ownership has been traditional in this country, but it is the best alternative for your family? A careful consideration of the advantages and disadvantages of home ownership should be made before you make the decision.

There are some psychological advantages to owning a home, Extension Housing and Farmhouse Specialist, Penny Lay, points out. It gives the family a feeling of security and independence. Usually the home owners status and tage are higher than the renter's. Also the home owner usually has a better choice of community, a neighborhood, site, and design and quality of housing. He has freedom to provide for family needs, preferences and tastes.

There also are some economical advantages to home ownership, say specialists from Texas A&M University. A house is a fairly safe investment and has a fair chance of increasing in value, plus the return on the investment to the owner. Some equity is accumulated.

There is a tax advantage to home ownership. A house is an incentive to save, and ownership improves one's credit rating.

Some of the disadvantages of owning a home are just as important. They include responsibilities for upkeep and repairs; difficulty in budgeting and controlling expenses; lack of flexibility or mobility; and a large portion of the income and savings is tied up in housing.

There is a financial risk involved because the property may decrease in value. Short-term ownership is usually more expensive than rent, but the home owner's costs are usually less after the house is paid for.

No Change In Spring Vegetable Acreage Seen

It will take 256,600 acres planted to the 13 principal spring vegetables to supply the commercial market needs of these crops, points out John Larsen of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

This is the same acreage as was grown last year, he says, as he calls attention to the acreage - marketing guides just released by the Consumer and Marketing Service of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Texas and Louisiana are among the states that produce most of the spring vegetables.

If growing conditions are normal in 1968, the recommended acreage will provide 3 percent less of these vegetables than in 1967 but 2 percent more than in 1966.

In addition, it is recommended that cantaloupes be grown on 36,600 acres, about 5 percent more than last year. This acreage would provide a crop just slightly smaller than in 1967 but well above 1966. Output of late spring watermelons on the recommended 63,800 acres would be 13 percent greater than in 1967 and above average.

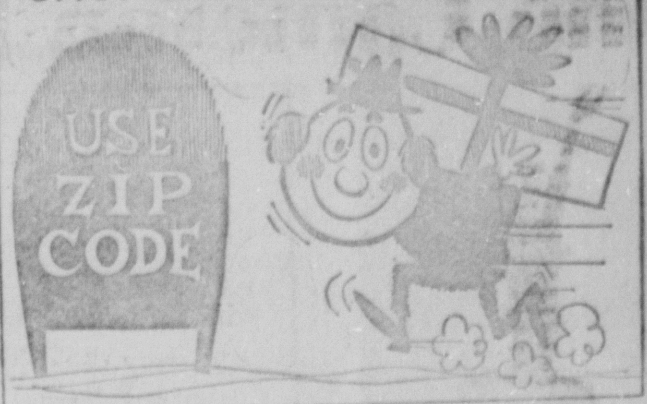

C&MS market analysts said that if spring vegetable and melon crops are in line with the guides, and if harvest timing is normal, supplies should be adequate for anticipated needs.

The guides call for 5 percent fewer acres planted to broccoli, celery and late spring onions; 19 percent fewer acres in carrots; and 5 percent more in both early and late spring sweet corn. No change is indicated for other spring vegetables - snap beans, cabbage, cauliflower, cucumbers, lettuce, early spring onions, green peppers, spinach and tomatoes.

Refusing a Job

Two men, both out of work, put in claims for unemployment insurance. Each was asked if he had tried to find another job.

The first man said:
"I was offered a job driving a taxicab, but I turned it down. The cab had an automatic transmission, and I happen to prefer a stick shift."

The second man said:
"I was offered a job as a paint sprayer but I turned it down. Although I could do the work, I am extremely allergic to paint."

Were these men, having refused to take jobs that were offered thereby disqualified some collecting unemployment insurance? All states do disqualify, in varying degrees, the person who refuses a job—but only if the job he refuses is "suitable."

In the above cases, the first man was indeed held disqualified. The cab driving job was suitable, because his only objection to it was petty and unreasonable. But the second man was held not disqualified. The painting job was not suitable, because it involved a real danger to his health.

Another factor that may affect the suitability of a job is the distance the person must travel to get there. For example:

A man was held disqualified for unemployment insurance because he refused a job located only 11 miles from his home. Good transportation was available, and hundreds of other employees were making the same trip every day.

But an older man was held justified in refusing a job 34 miles away. In his case, the only way he could have gotten there was by driving an old and ailing automobile.

Hours and wages, too, may be taken into account. Thus:

A stenographer who refused a 9 to 6 job, because she preferred 8 to 5, was held too finicky—hence disqualified for unemployment insurance. But a man was held not disqualified when he refused a job at wages substantially below those prevailing in the community.

In this way, weighing individual factors, the law seeks to carry out the basic philosophy of unemployment insurance—to draw a reasonable line between those who do want to work and those who do not. As one court put it:

"(Unemployment insurance) was designed to alleviate the financial hardship of those unemployed through no fault of their own. It was not intended to provide a vacation with pay."

File For Farm Gas Tax Refund Before April 15

COLLEGE STATION
The Federal Gas Tax refund of 4 cents per gallon on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes will now be claimed as a tax credit on the annual income tax report and must be filed before the end of the tax reporting period, which is April 15. Gas tax credits will not be allowed on late reports.

The tax credit has been extended to include the federal tax on lubricating oil at 6 cents per gallon, and on diesel fuel and special motor fuels used other than in highway vehicles, according to James Mallet, Extension farm management specialist at Texas A&M University.

Hours and wages, too, may be taken into account. Thus:

A stenographer who refused a 9 to 6 job, because she preferred 8 to 5, was held too finicky—hence disqualified for unemployment insurance. But a man was held not disqualified when he refused a job at wages substantially below those prevailing in the community.

33 YEARS FROM NOW

By the year 2000, our nation's statisticians expect a population increase of 100 million people.

We in the areas outside the urbanized metropolis must be prepared to share in this growth, to share in its opportunities, to face its problems.

That's why your local rural electric is already at work planning for a brighter, better future.

MRS. ROBERT ELLETT

With Hand Printed Cards

Christmas Greetings '67

Sending and receiving Christmas cards are a fine tradition — a time to tell old and new friends that we think of them in this season of joy. A personalized card is one of the nicest ways to greet friends, but is a rare treasure in a time of mass production.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ellett, of Cameron, will be among a small number in the United States to receive a personally designed card Christmas, 1967. The cards will be hand printed by Mrs. Ellett on a silk screen press, her first silk screen project since acquiring the printing frame.

She first sketched her Christmas card design, then hand cut the design on a special stencil. She places it on a silk or nylon screen and reproduces the design on paper by forcing ink or paint through the screen and stencil.

Mrs. Ellett says she was attracted by the flexibility of silk screen printing. Designs can be reproduced on almost any surface with an unlimited number of colors and types of ink or paint. And the substantial layer of paint or ink deposited on the printing surface in the silk-screen method produces color effects of superior brilliance, she points out.

A form of silk screen printing was used in Japan in the early 19th century. Later, it was developed by the printing industry in Germany and England for fine reproductions of paintings. In recent years it has been adopted by artists and is now accepted as a fine arts medium.

Eagles Take Brownsboro; Try For Semi's Title Friday

For the first time in history, Rogers High School's football team advances to the state semifinals play-off game, with Tidehaven High School. The Eagles and the Tice's will play at Brenham this Friday night (Dec. 8) at 7:30 at the high school stadium. Tickets in advance will be students 50 cents and reserved seats $2. At the gate, general admission tickets will be 12 and students $1.

Head Coach Donald Godwin of Rogers came to Rogers from Tidehaven, where he was also head coach.

Generally thus far in the State football race of Class A schools, the Rogers Eagles have been underdogs. In all probability it will also be so this week since Tidehaven has a 12-0 record against Rogers' 11-1-1, and the fact that Tidehaven has been in the top ten in Texas all season. The winner of Friday's bout will play the winner of the West Texas play-off game Friday night at San Angelo - Seagraves of far West Texas and Clifton of West Central Texas for state.

Last Friday the Eagles rocked the Brownsboro Bears out of the race with a 20-16 score.

The Eagles, though out-weighted, gave a battering performance with a persistence that became the winning factor.

Coach Godwin was pleased to the point of boasting as he said, "These boys just fight, fight, fight. We beat the big fat cats from East Texas."

The victory, though a team win, was snarled mainly by TB Mike Mayfield and FB Ray Sulak, converted end. The two all-state candidates did a fine job.

Mayfield, besides a blazing defensive game, piled up 158 yards in 24 carries. In the final quarter, Sulak was moved from end to full-back and from this position completed 78 yards in 6 lugs.

Top Eagle defenders were line-backers Cyril Gloria, Rickey Raley, and Charles Sulak.

District 18-A guard Bears who shone out were guard Jesse Williams, tackle Charles Clayton and halfback Billy Hudnall.

Top ground gainer for the Bruins was Rodney Shelton who shot off 88 yards in 20 carries.

Rogers hit paydirt first as Mayfield blasted into the end zone from one yard out to cap a 54 yard drive with half the first quarter left. Billy Crow was the snark of the drive as he hit the clear for 35 yards. Mayfield kicked wide, leaving the score at 6-0.

The rest of the half was scoreless. With nearly four minutes left in the half, Charles Sulak recovered a Bear fumble on their 47. The Eagles flashed to Brownsboro's 24 in seven plays before a fourth down try failed.

The Bears had to fight the clock now, and with the aid of penalties, they moved to the Rogers 47, before Ray Sulak broke up a Hudednall pass and dropped the Bear QB on the 34.

The first play after the kickoff of the second half saw Jesse Williams, 230 pound Bear fullback, fumble and Ray Sulak recover for the Eagles on the Bear 29.

Mayfield's 20 yard sprint to the Brownsboro 4 set up a 6-pointer and he made the TD a play later from one yard out. Mayfield's PAT boot put the score at 13-0 with nearly 10 minutes left in 3rd quarter.

A bad center snap went over Mayfield's head and when he chased the ball he was dropped in his end zone for 2 points on the Bear side. This score was 13-2.

The Bear squad hit the Eagle 5 with a pass interference call before Ray Sulak shattered Bear hopes with a tackle which jarred the ball loose from Shelton. Crow recovered for the Eagles on his own 19.

Compare Cost Of Shelled Pecans When Buying For Holiday Treats

COLLEGE STATION
Time seems to grow more important around the holiday season. Gwendolyn Ciyatt, Extension specialist in consumer marketing, offers these suggestions to help save time and money, making "plans ahead" for food easy.

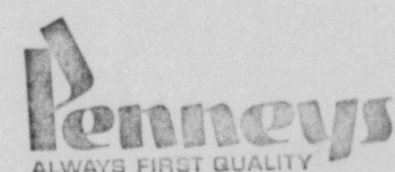

To shell or not to shell may be a question regarding pecans. Compare the cost of the nuts in the shell and those shelled. Two pounds of well-filled out pecans will yield about one pound of nut meats.

If pecans in the shell cost 69 cents a pound, one pound of nut meats would cost $1.35. Shelled pecans will cost about $1.70 a pound if you buy in that quantity. If you buy three or four ounce packages of pecans, then the cost per ounce is more, the Texas A&M University specialist said. Broken pieces may be less expensive than whole kernel - check prices. The pecan crop is late this year and better prices may be available later in the season.

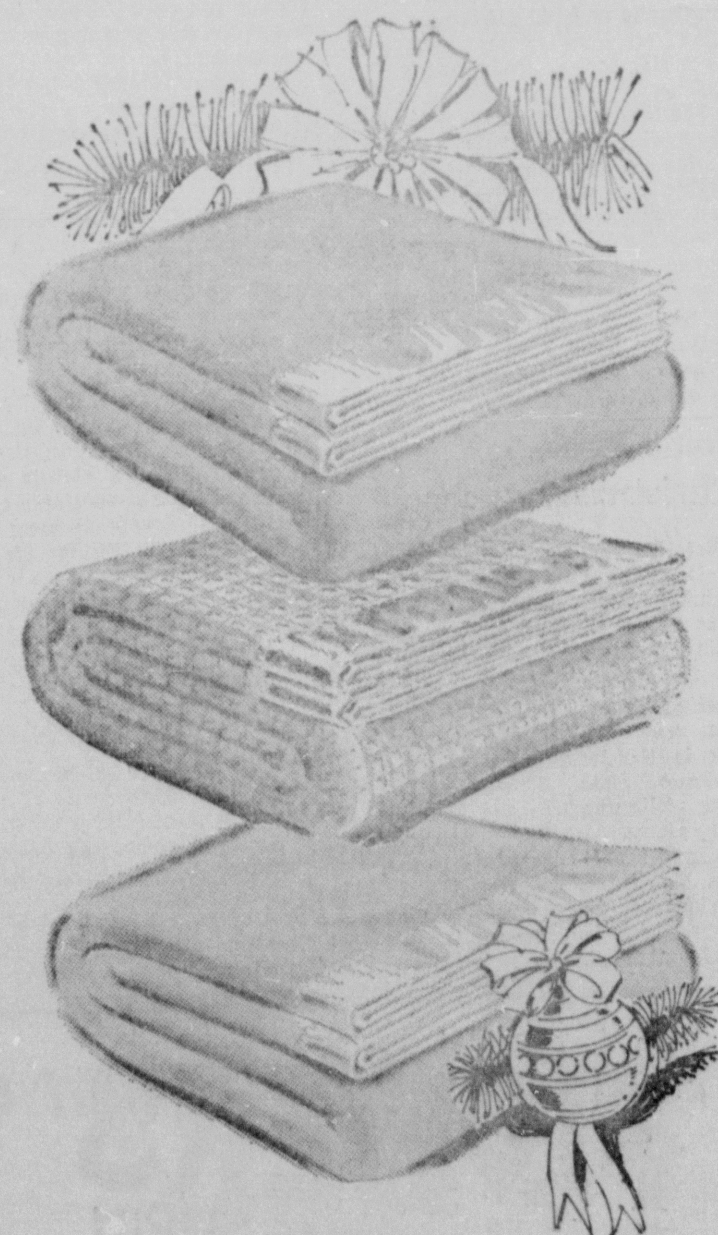

You may also be wondering whether to buy canned cranberry sauce or to make your own from fresh cranberries. A one pound can of cranberry sauce is two cups and makes 8 servings of one-fourth cup each. One pound of fresh cranberries will make three to three and a half cups of sauce and provide 12 to 14 servings of the same size. (Of course, sugar must be added to the fresh cranberries to make a sauce so add this to the cost of the fresh cranberries for accurate cost comparison.)

To have all your cookies at their best on Christmas day, classify the kinds you plan to make according to their storage life. The first cookies to make are those that need to be stored for a time to mellow their spicy goodness (such as fruit cake cookies).

Now bake those that are ready for eating as soon as they are baked but keep well for several weeks - these include refrigerator cookies. These are tender and store best in a loosely covered container. Rocks and hermits should be stored in a tightly covered container to keep moist and tender.

Big Red Downs Yoe Teams 80-44 In Tuesday Cage Action

The Cameron Yoemen varsity and B teams met defeat at the hands of Big Red this Tuesday in Yoe Gym. The varsity fell by a score of 80-44, while the junior varsity score was 4-37.

In the varsity game, starters for Cameron were Al Heft, Wayne Kirk, Dennis Chapman, Tommy Terrell, and acting captain Glenn Fogle. Other varsity members are Charles Maddox, Jim Lafferty, Mike Miller, and Gary Curtis.

The Yoe varsity is more settled and controlled in its offense, with a few weaknesses showing. Total rebounds by Yoemen were 28. This is higher than the B team but is still fairly low. As with the Yoe B's, fouling is a problem, as the varsity committed 23 fouls.

The Big Red varsity took off with a flash as it scored nearly 20 points each quarter. First quarter play gave a 19-9 lead to Belton. The halftime score showed a 35-11 Big Red lead. Going into the fourth quarter it was 77-24 and ran up into the 80-44 victory for Belton.

Number one scorer was Wayne Kirk who collected 13 points for the night's work. Twelve of the points came on field goals. Dennis Chapman followed Kirk closely with 9 for a total. Remaining courtiers who shook the net were Fogle and Heft, who each tabbed 6. Tommy Terrell 5, Lafferty 4, and Maddox 1.

In the rebounding department, Terrell placed first, as he took the ball off the board nine times. Kirk followed with 8 rebounds.

B-TEAM
Taking the floor as B starters were Robert Brashear, Ken McLerran, Dennis Couch, Sam White and Jerry Richardson.

These courtiers, while carrying a potent, organized offense, lack a little in other spots. For instance, the number of fouls committed by the Yoe players was 24—a high number in anyone's book. Another spot where work is needed is at rebounding. Yoe hands took the ball off the back board only 22 times during the whole game.

The Yoe roundballers led 14-11 at the end of the first quarter. By half time the lead had shrunk to one point as the score stood at 25-24. Slowly, the Big Red B boys pulled ahead in the third quarter so that by the final quarter the score was 40-35. The Yoemen just couldn't break through the fired up Belton team as Big Red piled the baskets up.

Brashear topped the scoring column with a brilliant 19 points. Ten of those were field goals. Other Yoe courtiers with a finger in the scoring pie were Marvin Young with 2, McLerran with 2, Richardson and Norman Trubee 5 each, Sam White 3, and John Black 1.

Number one in the rebounding department were McLerran and White who each accounted for 6 rebounds.

Player Of Week

By Fritz Pratt

Friday the Cameron Yoemen were felled in their season opener by a 72-50 score.

A Player-of-the-Week pick will not be made this week. Due to transportation problems, The Herald will not be able to print eyewitness reports of some of the out-of-town games. Since the Marlin game falls into this category, a player pick will not appear this week.

Although Al Heft and Wayne Kirk were reported as squad leaders, others may have accomplished an equal performance. Therefore it would not be fair to pick a player, since The Herald had no exact report.

In the future, the games, home and abroad, will be covered according to yours truly's ability to attend these games.

John Gregg led the Bulldogs to a whopping victory by scoring 23 of his team's 72 points.

The Yoe varsity compiled 50 points, 10 of which belong to Al Heft, Yoe roundball veteran with a letter from last year.

Following with a brilliant offensive effort and a shining defensive game was Wayne Kirk. The final score - 72-50.

In the B team bout, the Yoe courtiers were downed by a 47-25 score. Larry Kalmbak led the Bulldogs squad with a total of 14 points.

Pacing the Yoe five was freshman Robert Brashear, whose 13 points marked his efforts. The final score - 47-25.

County Agent's Notes . . .

Tex-Hen Topics

By J. D. Moore
Egg prices have gone down this year, according to David B. Well, Extension Poultry Marketing Specialist at A&M. They are quite a bit lower than they have been for the last several years. In a series of Tex-Hen Topics over the weeks ahead we will discuss some of the things that are happening in the egg market.

The United States egg market is a national one. Eggs are a perishable commodity but they are readily transported anywhere in the country. Any surplus supplies in one area will be shipped to another area. This can lower prices in one area beyond levels expected by the production there. This tendency to move eggs from surplus areas narrows the national price spreads and lowers the price over the whole country as happened this year.

Egg supplies are generally 6 percent higher this year, nationwide, but prices are down about 15 percent from last year. The larger production is due to an increased number of layers, and a 2 percent higher rate of lay.

This year's production is probably a response to the higher prices received for eggs and the increased profits from egg production achieved last year. Even though the egg production in Texas is less than necessary to feed Texans, the prices in Texas are depressed by this year's national surplus.

Prices received by farmers for eggs in the spring of 1965 were lower than in 1964 or the 1960-64 average for spring months. This probably influenced decisions of producers to buy less pullets that spring. Fewer pullet chicks were placed (Feb., March, April, May) than normally (22 million less than in 1964). (Part of this decrease in placements in the spring is due to a trend toward leveling out production which is taking place in the poultry industry and will be discussed in later Tex-Hen Topics).

These 1965 pullet chicks came into production in the fall but they did not lay enough eggs to meet the demand. The price of eggs went up in the fall of 1965 and by December egg prices were averaging 8 cents more than in December 1964 and 4 cents more than the 1960-64 average for December.

It is interesting to note that the smaller number of chicks that were bought in the spring of 1965 produced slightly more eggs than had been produced in 1964. They undoubtedly had some help from old hens held over because of the favorable price situation. Although more eggs were produced in the fall of '65 and all during '66 than previously, prices were better than they had been.

This seems to defy the law of supply and demand. Did it?—No. Demand for eggs was stronger because of the normal population increase and mainly, because red meat (beef and pork) prices were higher. By comparison, people found eggs a good buy and were willing to pay a higher price for eggs than they did in the previous year.

Just as lower prices in the spring of '65 encouraged farmers not to buy chicks, the higher prices in the fall of '65 and spring of '66 encouraged them to buy more. With good egg prices, everyone wanted to get on the bandwagon. Although chick placements in early '66 were higher than the year before, they were below the average for 1961-65. Thus in the spring of '66 even with favorable prices, the chick placements were still below normal. However, chick placements picked up markedly through the rest of the year.

The June - December placements were up about 4 million per month. Thus the really big increase in pullet chick placements took place in the fall months of 1966. This was a delayed reaction heavily influenced by '65 fall and '66 spring price of eggs. Price remained good through the fall and into Dec. when it was 5 cents above the 1961-65 average.

PRICES FALL

By early 1967, the egg price began to fall. The eggs from the large pullet chick placements in the fall of 1966 began to show up as increased production. Also, red meat prices fell, especially because of increased supplies of pork. This combination depressed egg prices severely.

The extremely low prices of 1967 have brought about many producer complaints. In July the USDA purchased dry eggs for school lunch program, the first since 1964. An equivalent of 236,000 cases were purchased through September. This probably helped the price situation somewhat. However, in 1967 egg production has been about a million cases per month ahead of 1966 and more than a million cases per month more than the 1961-65 average.

The current situation is that with more layers on farms, producing at a higher rate than ever before, the U.S. egg farmers are producing more eggs. Three regional organizations have evolved during the past several years to try to obtain better egg prices for the producer.

Recently, a formal proposal was made to Secretary of Agriculture Freeman to help the immediate and long-term egg price situation. This proposal and these organizations will be discussed in the next Tex-Hen Topics released by Mellor.

ASCS

By Aiva Sanders

Milam County farmers are reminded to return their ballots on marketing quotas for the 1968 upland cotton crop -- by mail or in person to the ASCS County Office.

As last year, balloting in the quota referendum started Dec. 4 and will end Dec. 8. Marked ballots are to be postmarked no later than midnight, Friday, Dec. 8.

The lease or sale of cotton allotments is provided for the 1968 crop regardless of the outcome of the marketing quota referendum. However, transfer documents have to be filed with the county office no later than January 2, 1968. The county committee is now accepting applications for transfer of cotton allotments.

Now is the time to make plans for the 1968 crops. If we can be of assistance to you in determining acreages, please call on us.

To Whom It May Concern: - Citizens of Cameron in Particular--

You are being asked to go to the polls on December 19, next, and cast your vote for or against authorizing the City of Cameron to levy a one per cent sales tax as is levied by the State of Texas and my prayer is that every qualified voter in the corporate limits of Cameron will correctly inform himself and herself and GO to the polls and vote. This is your privilege as free American citizens and let us have a voice in government.

The Texas Municipal League has a membership of some 600 cities and towns in Texas. The League has the money necessary to employ the best talent known today and has been able to sell the people who are going to suffer most if this monstrosity is adopted, a bill of goods. It appears that all my friends in Cameron are going all out to get the sales tax levied passed, however as I see it, I have a responsibility and a duty to perform and that I will do even though I stand alone.

May I say my people settled near Cameron 80 years ago and I have lived in Cameron or near Cameron 73 years. Cameron holds lots more sentiment for me than for most people who live in Cameron today. May I suggest I have been a tax collector. I stood at the counter in Cameron for ten years and collected taxes from people of all walks of life for the State of Texas. I am a 66 school district, 21 road districts, and one levee district. Folks came who always had the money with which to pay taxes, others came who could barely rake up enough money to pay the taxes and no money was left to get the children some new shoes. There were the persons of advanced years who came on cold, bleak days and you could quickly see they did not have enough food or good warm clothes. Their hands were gnarled and the fingers stiff and it took some time for them to dig the last penny saved to pay taxes from the bottom of their pockets.

Now my heart often ached for the widows with a number of small children left with a modest home when they could not by any means get the money to pay taxes on the little home. You see I was tax collector during the early years of the great depression. Taxation to me is a matter of very grave concern and I pray that our Lord God Almighty may know I played the game fair. May I raise the question here, "Are the property owners of Cameron playing the game fair?"

The cities of Texas have gone rampant in turning to the sales tax levy and may I ask, "Have they so soon forgotten the Boston Tea Party which precipitated the American revolution and the loss of the original colonies to the British Kingdom? Have they so soon forgotten the furious rage of the colonists when they declared Taxation without Representation unjust, unfair and without precedent in the known world? Your city government is now asking you to impose a one per cent sales tax on your neighbors, friends and potential customers who live in the rural areas of the Cameron trade territory and enjoy none of the blessings and benefits of your corporate community. You have fire protection and many comforts and modern conveniences not known to the rural people. Because of the late disturbance between the City Council and the Commissioners Court about fighting fires in the rural areas many of you believe the rural areas now have fire protection but in so far as the rates on fire insurance within and without the city are fixed by a State Board and the premiums in the rural areas are near double that in the city. The difference we pay in fire insurance would pay lots of city taxes.

When my father operated a business in Cameron 50 years ago we met our friends from the rural areas with outstretched hand, a glad how-do-you-do and a warm welcome. We helped un hitch the teams and placed ourselves at their service. All we asked them to do was to purchase our merchandise paying us a fair margin of profit thereby to help us support our city government. Your city government is saying to the rural people today, "If you come in to Cameron and survive the traffic hazards DO NOT spend any money with our business men unless you want to help us pay the cost of special benefits and blessings of a corporate community above and beyond the profit you pay to our merchants on the merchandise you buy from them. You must pay to the City of Cameron one cent for every dollar you spend on items covered by the State Sales Tax Levy." As to traffic hazards I suggest that when one enters Cameron one never knows when an approaching vehicle may quickly turn to the left side of the street directly in front of his vehicle. At certain hours on some streets vehicles travel at very dangerous speeds. And at one of the most prominent intersections in Cameron a private business is permitted to appropriate and use public property, the streets and sidewalks, for the maintenance and conduct of that private business. This creates a dangerous traffic hazard at that point and one may be injured or lose a life at that intersection at any hour. One line of thought is that should such an accident happen every official representing Cameron, every citizen of Cameron who has given approval of such conditions even by silent consent will bear the guilt of such tragedy.

This is not the greatest or most TRAGIC situation facing Cameron today. May I tell you that in the past few days I have discussed briefly this sales tax proposal with three Cameron business men and mentioned to only two of those men the position of the rural people when required to help support the City Government and both of these men quickly retorted, "The country people are not going to be forced to trade in Cameron."

May I tell you that during my recent tenure of service on the Board of Trustees for the Cameron Independent School District when working for an enlarged, improved, thriving school system I was astounded. I was shocked. I was averted to find so much animosity, hostility, even bitterness in many areas of the Cameron trade territory and all directed at the City of Cameron. In my judgment you may place a barrel of gold behind every door at the City Hall but unless this situation is corrected Cameron will never prosper to any great extent. Cameron people have no idea of how much trade in the Cameron trade territory is going to Temple, Rosebud, Waco, Calvert, Hearne, Caldwell, Rockdale, We, the rural people, were glad to join with Cameron in creating a very fine school district bringing into existence a first rank school where all of us enjoy the benefits and blessings equally and all of us have an active participation in the conduct of the school system. We experienced the most unselfish contribution to the school made by 18 or 20 citizens of the rural areas came in to work with our Board of Equalization headed by one of Cameron finest men. These men volunteered their time and to play the game fair taxes for all rural people were doubled, tripled, raised four fold in some instances. The following year with a tax-assessor-collector who lives in the country and a fine Board of Equalization in a re-appraisal program Cameron values were substantially reduced. I venture the guess that the rural people are now paying 65 percent of the school taxes for the Cameron schools however it does not follow that the rural people should be required to help support a city government in which they have no voice and enjoy none of its benefits.

I would suggest that Cameron people DO NOT impose a sales tax levy on their neighbors, friends and potential customers but that instead you quickly begin to sponsor community meetings all over the Cameron trade territory and as for that to the uttermost points of Milam County carrying a message of goodwill, friendship, mutual understanding trying as hard to make your neighbors, friends and potential customers to know of Cameron's dire need of them and their business as you are now trying to sell the sales tax levy to the voters of Cameron.

It is said that Cameron has financial difficulties because the people of Cameron cannot pay any more ad valorem taxes. I have worked with ad valorem taxes more than 40 years and this is not a reasonable statement. Taxation in some form is as old as the history of man and it has always been accepted that a citizen shall pay taxes according to his ability to pay. In the beginning in our own country we had no ad valorem, (which is to say "a rate per cent or according to the value thereof") Land and livestock represented the only taxable property and a citizen was taxed according to the number of acres owned and the value was not considered. And likewise animals were taxed at a fixed amount per head and do you know that is largely practiced today in that a governing body will give the tax assessor a dollar basis per animal without regard as to whether it is scrub animals or registered animals. No my friends the wealth of Cameron is not on your city tax rolls and the constitution and statutes of Texas very clearly required that all property shall be taxed at its fair market value.

My judgment is that if Cameron is to prosper the rural areas surrounding Cameron must purchase its goods, wares and merchandise in Cameron. And as to Cameron's financial difficulties I have news for you and tell you for a fact that the rural farming, ranching citizens are facing a financial crisis far greater and more severe than anything known to Cameron. The cost of modern farming has increased ten fold in the past few years and that with farm commodities declining in price every year. The price of land is prohibitive. Labor on the farm is ten times more than a few years ago. A modern tractor and farming equipment costs today about $10,000.00.

My plea is DO NOT VOTE THIS SALES TAX LEVY on the rural people on whom Cameron must depend for its life blood. I have seen the elaborate brochure used in the campaign to sell the idea to Cameron citizens and I refer to Item No. 6. Questions and Answers: "Can the City of Cameron increase the sales tax percentage?" The answer is NO and that is correct. But you are not told that in all probability and in the best judgment of many good authorities the Called Session of the 60th Legislature of the State of Texas meeting in 1968 will remove all EXEMPTIONS from the State Sales Levy and with that done all of us will pay several times more than as of now to both the State and the City of Cameron, if the city sales tax levy is adopted by the voters. This is the history of sales taxes wherever found and the next move then is to begin raising the levy. The Texas Municipal League has been able to get the Legislature to authorize the City Sales Levy and you may know they can get more when and if they want it.

Please remember that a Sales Tax Levy on the necessities of life is a "Poor Man's Tax". It falls heaviest on:

1. Newly married young folks who are ambitious to make a home, rear a family, and in time acquire their own home.
2. On mothers and dads who are rearing a family of children who will guide the destinies of our country after we are all gone.
3. Older persons on fixed incomes and often have inadequate funds to meet today's demand. Yes I know some who are a few dollars short for the actual needs.
4. The poor whom you will have with you always and persons who must spend every cent earned or received for the necessities of life.

I can no more reconcile the will to impose a tax for the support of a government on people who have no voice in that government, and enjoy none of its blessings and benefits, with common justice, than could the Original Colonists accept Taxation with Representation.

I cannot reconcile the will to impose a sales tax levy on the necessities of life, a bar of soap, a pencil, perhaps some warm clothes for a cold child, or maybe some bread for a hungry child, with Christianity. As for me and my house we will carry bread to them.

C. R. (Roy) Law

The above has been prepared by me personally with no suggestions from others. It is submitted at my own proper cost and expense. If any one would care to share this expense with me I will be glad to hear from you.

CAT OR KITTEN?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

At long last wildlife management is finding a resting place with society.

We have come to recognize that wildlife management today has advanced to a point where it is an accepted fact. We have an abundance of game because of proper management and we may continue in that direction so long as we maintain that management.

Deer perhaps provide the best example.

A quarter of a century ago Texas faced the loss of deer hunting because the deer were disappearing. Ranches were overrun with deer. Little or no attention was being paid to management of the crop.

Then things changed! Today we actually have an overpopulation of deer in many areas. It has been less than 15 years since wildlife specialists were able to convince some landowners and some hunters that the harvesting of deer was necessary. A few counties, under the regulatory authority

Which brings up to the point of suggesting that the vigil on the use of these funds be retained. They should not be sidetracked for other purposes. It is money paid by the sportsmen of Texas and any other use of it would be a misapplication of funds.

A great deal more work must be done in experimentation. For instance, efforts now are being made to introduce new upland game. These birds would supplement the quail rather than replace it. Some of these birds, partridges and pheasants, have done well in other states. They might also do well in Texas.

Similar work is being done in fisheries. Striped and walleyes from other states have been introduced into Texas lakes. This has been going on for some time, through exchange programs with other states. So far not a great deal of progress has been made, but the work continues.

Who knows? Perhaps one of these fish will take over like the white bass (sandies to some).

White now are in abundance in practically every impoundment of any size within the state. They increase rapidly. They make a fine game fish and can be caught literally by the thousands any month of the year.

The walleye may be another fish that will take over like the sandies. Meanwhile, black bass, spotted bass, crappie and the various species of bream are plentiful. And blessed by the catfish, an old-timer with many friends.
